EDITORIAL

Dear People of Montmaurin,

“First appearing during the glacial periods about 300,000 years ago, the cave lion was the largest predator of that era. It lived in Siberia and Alaska but also in Europe and Asia. It disappeared about twelve thousand years ago after living alongside our prehistoric ancestors. Such skeletons as the one discovered in Montmaurin are rare”. This is how the skeleton is introduced by the Aurignacien Museum.

A temporary exhibition entitled “in the skin of the lion” can be seen at the Musée Forum de l’Aurignacien until November 30. It includes the actual skeleton of the cave Lion of Montmaurin together with a multimedia display allowing us to go back in time and find out about this iconic specimen.

The Comminges Pyrenees PETR, in partnership with the three Communautés de Communes and local tourist offices, has just brought out a publicity video on Comminges as a tourist destination. You can view this video on the village site www.montmaurin.fr / accueil / actualités...

To accompany this video a travel booklet will soon be published promoting culture and tourism in the area, aimed at visitors to our mountain and hillside sites in all seasons.

You will find, following this, information about events organised particularly in Montmaurin for the beginning of summer 2018.

Sincerely,

Silvia Belair, the Mayor

« MARIANNE DU CIVISME » AWARD

The village of Montmaurin was classed first in its category and rewarded at the Mariannes du Civisme awards because of its high turnout in the following elections: municipal 2014, regional 2015, presidential and legislative 2017.

The Association of former mayors and deputies of Haute Garonne who organised the event at St Gaudens, attended by Mme the Deputy President of St Gaudens, presented a statuette of the Marianne du Civisme to the commune on 11 April last.

We wanted to let you know about this and - by way of thanking you- we are placing this bust of Marianne in the Mairie as it was obtained thanks to your interest in both national and communal elections.
